Interconnected Lockset

"Backset" is the distance from the door edge to the center of the mounting hole for the lever.

Caution: Although a door can be prepared by an untrained person, Yale recommends that measurements and drilling be done by a skilled carpenter or locksmith.

Recommended Centerline 36" (91 cm) From Floor.

Caution: Copy machines may change the size of the template and make it inaccurate.

Caution: Copy machines may change the size of the template and make it inaccurate.